Seattle Men's Chorus: Silver & Soul Shimmers with Soulful Celebration

Two Concerts at Tacoma's Rialto Theater on December 10

Sponsor: DaVita

TACOMA, WASH. – Seattle Men's Chorus (SMC) brings their annual Holiday concert, "Silver and Soul," to Tacoma's Rialto Theater on Saturday, December 10 for two shows at 3:00 and 7:30 p.m. The signature concert shimmers with the sounds of beloved carols and shakes with a fresh and soulful celebration of the season. All the ingredients are here for one of the biggest holiday extravaganzas: start with 250 joyful voices singing favorites like "Sleigh Ride" and "O Come, All Ye Faithful." Add a tender David Bowie tribute, mix in a clever karaoke sing-along, heat things up with gospel harmonies and top it off with a disco Santa finale. Tickets are on sale now.

The internationally renowned Seattle Men's Chorus and Seattle Women's Chorus comprise the largest community chorus organization in North America, and stand out as the largest LGBT-identified men's and women's choruses in the world. Founded in 1979, Seattle Men's Chorus has grown to become an internationally-respected music organization and the world's largest LGBT Men's Chorus with over 360 members.

Music works have been commissioned from such composers as John Corigliano (Grammy Award, 1997), Gian Carlo Menotti, Robert Moran, and Conrad Susa. SMC has performed with stars of stage and screen including Debbie Reynolds, Harvey Fierstein, Megan Mullally, Rosemary Clooney, Kristin Chenoweth, Megan Hilty, and Leslie Jordan.

Tickets for Seattle Men's Chorus are on sale now and start at \$32. To purchase tickets call the Broadway Center Box Office at 253.591.5894, toll-free 1.800.291.7593, online at BroadwayCenter.org, or in person at 901 Broadway in Tacoma's Theater District.
