Bequests are vital to the Broadway Center for the Performing Arts' financial stability and continued artistic development. Gifts made to the Tacoma Philharmonic Legacy

Endowment Fund will be placed in the endowment fund to pay for expenses related to continued programming and education programs related to the Tacoma Philharmonic.

The wording of a bequest provision will vary depending upon the type of gift you desire to make and whether such a gift may be restricted. Examples of appropriate language are written below. In all cases, you should consult with a qualified attorney who can review your goals in light of applicable federal and state laws and draft your will to reflect your specific wishes. Please note that the organization's full legal name is the Broadway Center for the Performing Arts and federal tax identification number is 0091-1106878.

Specific Bequest:

"I give to the Broadway Center for the Performing Arts, a Washington state nonprofit corporation, ______(property or dollar amount)."

Residuary Bequest:

"I give to Broadway Center for the Performing Arts, a Washington state nonprofit corporation, (all or a percentage) of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate."

Specific Percentage Bequest:

"I give to Broadway Center for the Performing Arts, a Washington state nonprofit corporation, ______ percent of my estate."

It is especially important to consult with the Broadway Center if you are considering a restricted gift to ensure that the proposed restriction is honored.

If you include the Broadway Center in your will, we would appreciate receiving a copy of the provisions of your will that pertain to our organization.

Broadway Center representatives are available to meet with you and your advisors to assist in your charitable gift planning goals. All inquiries will be held in confidence. For more information or to arrange a private, no-obligation consultation, please contact:
